IN THE FUTURE

WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE DO?

PULSAR PARTNERS is an investment company, created to design financial vehicles with high potential

Through these vehicles, Pulsar Partners invests in different areas for its partners. The company offers investment solutions adapted to the Pan-African environment and based on international standard management and governance.

Pulsar Partners shows an important transparency when it comes to planning and steering its investment strategy and offers its financial partners to be an important part of it. The company intends to build a long term absorption capacity in order to create a gateway for large investors wanting to benefit from investment opportunities on the African continent.

REALIZE OUR AMBITION

MESSAGE FROM THE FOUNDER

The African continent suffers major deficiencies when it comes to risk capital. The already existing investment vehicles represent only a low capacity channel in Sub-Saharan Africa. As the developed economies saturated, the continent once marginalized in development slowly but surely became a place for opportunities for investors. The demographic conditions and the needs in change allow us to say that Africa is indeed an buoyant market.

Left on the margin of development for a long time ago, as western economies face more and more constraints, Africa becomes a land of opportunities for investors looking for performance. Demographic conditions and structural economic transformations needs, are some of the elements that make us believe in Africa as a real high-potential market.

Having recognized the opportunities, we have designed Pulsar Partners as catalyst dedicated to financing opportunities to be seized. We invest for our financial partners while complying with governance standards and international standards. Our engagement is wealth creating for our financial partners and value provider for the entities we accompany.

Our goal is to become one of the leaders of investment, capable to deploy our savoir faire and our approach throughout the world. Pulsar Partners was created with the firm conviction that Africa is a launching pad for our long term goals. As founder I have the feeling that the values we share with our partners, integrity, professionalism and performance, allow us to build and accomplish our ambition.
